12. COMMUNICATION & COMMANDS

START of the performance

Athlete arriving to the stage will have their preparation time before starting their performance. When the athlete is ready to start, they will signal to the head judge (Judge 1).

When the signal is given, the 10 second timer will start preparing for the performance. During this time the athlete CAN NOT touch the bar but will remain ready to start their performance.

After 10 seconds, a sound can be heard, and the timer will appear. After the sound athlete can grab the bar and start their performance.

DURING the performance

If the athlete fails to perform a correct technique on an exercise, a NO REP command is given.

NO REP command is followed by a command specifying the issue in athletes' technique. For example, NO REP – ARMS.

FINISHING the performance

The athlete's performance is finished once the last repetition of the last exercise is performed, and the time will then stop.

13. TITLES

The athlete with the fastest time in this competition wins the title of the Nordic Champion 2022 in Strength & Endurance.
